Organized by the TEACHING EXCELLENCE CENTER AND LANGUAGE CENTER

The EMI Teachers Community Brings You

THE JAPAN EXPERIENCE OF EMI AND THE CEFR

September 22, 2021 Time: 10:00-12:00 Online: https://reurl.cc/Q6pOM5

Speaker: Dr. Jason Moser

Jason Moser is an associate professor in the Department of Communication at Kanto Gakuin University in Yokohama, Japan. He has lived in Japan for over 25 years and has done advisory work and been involved in program development for both the Japanese Ministry of Education, and the Osaka City Board of Education. He has also been involved in numerous large-scale curriculum reform projects at the university level. He received his doctorate from the University of Birmingham in the UK, and was part of their graduate school teaching staff from 2010-2021.His research interests are the CEFR, curriculum development, pedagogy, task-based learning, and online learning and testing. He is currently working with well-known ESL specialist Jane Willis on making her task-based learning course available online.